FOR REFLECTION: "The parables of Jesus were like missiles launched against the kingdom of darkness in men's hearts. They were 'timed' to destroy the self-confidence of men and women, and to overcome all opposition to their conversion to Christ. They were calculated to bring people to a point of decision" (Sinclair Ferguson).

In Christ Alone is our June Hymn of the Month. Over the past twenty years, the musical partnership of Keith Getty and Stuart Townend has defined the genre of the modern hymn. Dating from 2001, "In Christ Alone" was the first hymn they co-wrote. It is a credal hymn in the way it declares the whole life of Christ and what that means for those who put their faith in Jesus. The final stanza of the hymn arrives at the power, assurance, and hope that all believers experience now and in the future.
